

Identifying Common Butterflies in San Antonio

Plan a visit to a natural area park to look for butterflies! How many can you identify?
Remember, some butterflies are seasonal in their occurrence.

Monarch | Danaus plexippus

Reakirt's Blue | Echinargus isola

Queen | Danaus gilippus

Pipevine Swallowtail | Battus philenor

Variegated Fritillary | Euptoieta claudia

Bordered Patch | Chlosyne lacinia

Painted Lady | Vanessa cardui

Common Mestra | Mestra dorcas

Southern Dogface | Zerene cesonia

Common Buckeye | Junonia coenia

Sleepy Orange | Abaeis nicippe

Gulf Fritillary | Agraulis vanillae

Large Orange Sulphur | Phoebis agarithe

Little Yellow | Eurema lisa

Dainty Sulphur | Nathalis iole

Juniper Hairstreak | Callophrys gryneus

Gray Hairstreak | Strymon melinus

Ceraunus Blue | Hemiargus ceraunus

American Snout | Libytheana carinenta

Common & White Checkered Skippers
Complex Burnsius communis

Clouded Skipper | Lerema accius

Fiery Skipper | Hylephila phyleus

Sachem | Atalopedes campestris

Dun Skipper | Euphyes vestris