Happy New Year

On the evening of December 7th, San Antonio had a rare occurrence of snow. The next morning the trees were laden with snow that soon melted.

Trail Watch Volunteers Needed—Natural Areas Edition!

San Antonio Parks and Recreation is expanding the popular Trail Watch program to include several Natural Areas park locations. Volunteers are needed at Friedrich Wilderness Park, Crownridge Park, and Eisenhower Park to hike the trails and educate visitors about trail safety, etiquette and park rules as well as hand out water and provide directions. Volunteers will also share general information about the local flora and fauna. We are looking for volunteers:

- Ages 18+
- Who have the ability to hike long distances with a pack weighing 25+ lbs
- Are friendly, outgoing and passionate about parks
- Are willing to commit to at least 4 hours of service a month (Weekends included)

Interested in learning more? Call 210-207-8603 or email Meredith.Tilley@sanantonio.gov. Volunteer orientation dates will be announced in early 2018.

Spring Membership Event Save the Date—March 3rd at Friedrich Wilderness Park!

The FOSANA Board of Directors is partnering with City staff to organize this year's Spring Membership Event. We would love to see you all attend and enjoy informative discussion, guided hikes and much more!
