

Calling All San Antonio Birders!

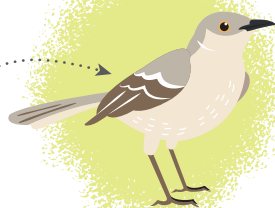

Grab your binoculars and get ready to find some of these feathered friends in your neighborhood or park! To help you identify these birds, we've highlighted some of their most notable features.

Check off what you find below! ☒

Carolina Chickadee ☐

two white wingbars

Northern Mockingbird ☐

black tuft on head

☐ Black-crested Titmouse

red and yellow shoulder patch

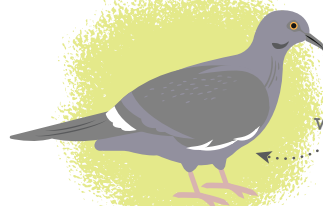

☐ Red-winged Blackbird

red male, brown female, red beak

☐ Northern Cardinal

white wing stripe

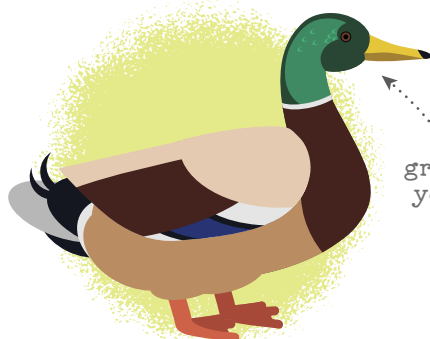

White-winged Dove ☐

large ear tufts

Great Horned Owl ☐

green head, yellow bill

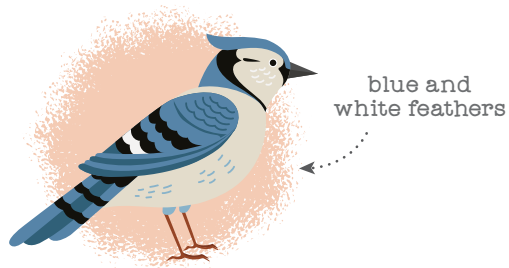

Mallard ☐

black iridescent feathers

☐ Great-tailed Grackle

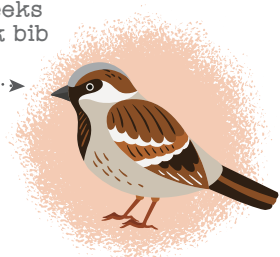

Blue Jay ☐

forked tail,
rusty brown
forehead and chin

Barn Swallow ☐

white cheeks
with black bib

☐ House Sparrow

ladder of stripes
down back

Ladder-backed Woodpecker ☐

black chin,
green back

☐ Black-chinned Hummingbird

black head
and back;
yellow belly

☐ Lesser Goldfinch

Long tail and legs,
crest on head

Greater Roadrunner ☐

blue above,
reddish brown
chest

☐ Eastern Bluebird

rusty red breast,
broken white
eye ring

American Robin ☐

reddish brown body,
white eye stripe

Carolina Wren ☐

large bird,
red tail, dark head

☐ Red-tailed Hawk